This is an outrage. I pay for the quality and services provided by XM radio. My local traffic and weather are a big part of the package provided to me by XM. I enjoy listening to my music selections and news when I choose and without unprofessional radio personalities making vulgar and inappropriate remarks that my children have to hear. I have the right to listen to music or news of my choice when I choose. I pay for this service and feel if it is taken away the government is then infringing on MY RIGHTS. Maybe the government should look more carefully at the individuals that broadcast the news on the radio and interject their opinions whenever they choose. Many of the "famous" radio personalities such as Rush are an embarrassment to this country. I am a public educator and the words I speak need to be carefully chosen and without personal opinion. Why are teachers constantly under attack and the news isn't. The FCC should not be proud of the people that represent it. I STRONGLY URGE THE FCC TO REJECT THE NAB'S PETITION 04-160.
Sincerely,

Julie A. Stewart
